South Australia is the wine capital of Australia – and one of the nine Great Wine Capitals of the World, alongside Bordeaux in France, Napa Valley in the US and Bilbao Rioja in Spain. The network of global wine capitals share a common asset: their internationally renowned wine regions.

adelaide hills

Just a short drive from Adelaide, the Adelaide Hills is a great place to spend a day touring cellar doors. The region is known for its prize-winning cool climate wines, from Sauvignon Blanc to Chardonnay and Pinot Noir. A number of innovative wineries call this area home.

barossa valley & eden valley

Two wine regions combined make up the Barossa. Both areas have their specialty wines. Eden Valley has a reputation for amazing Riesling, while the Barossa Valley is home to some of the world's best Shiraz.

clare valley

The Clare Valley is a little further north from the Barossa. Clare Valley is famous for Riesling and you'll know why once you try it. Follow the Riesling Trail by bicycle and stop at cellar doors to try some of this well made drop.

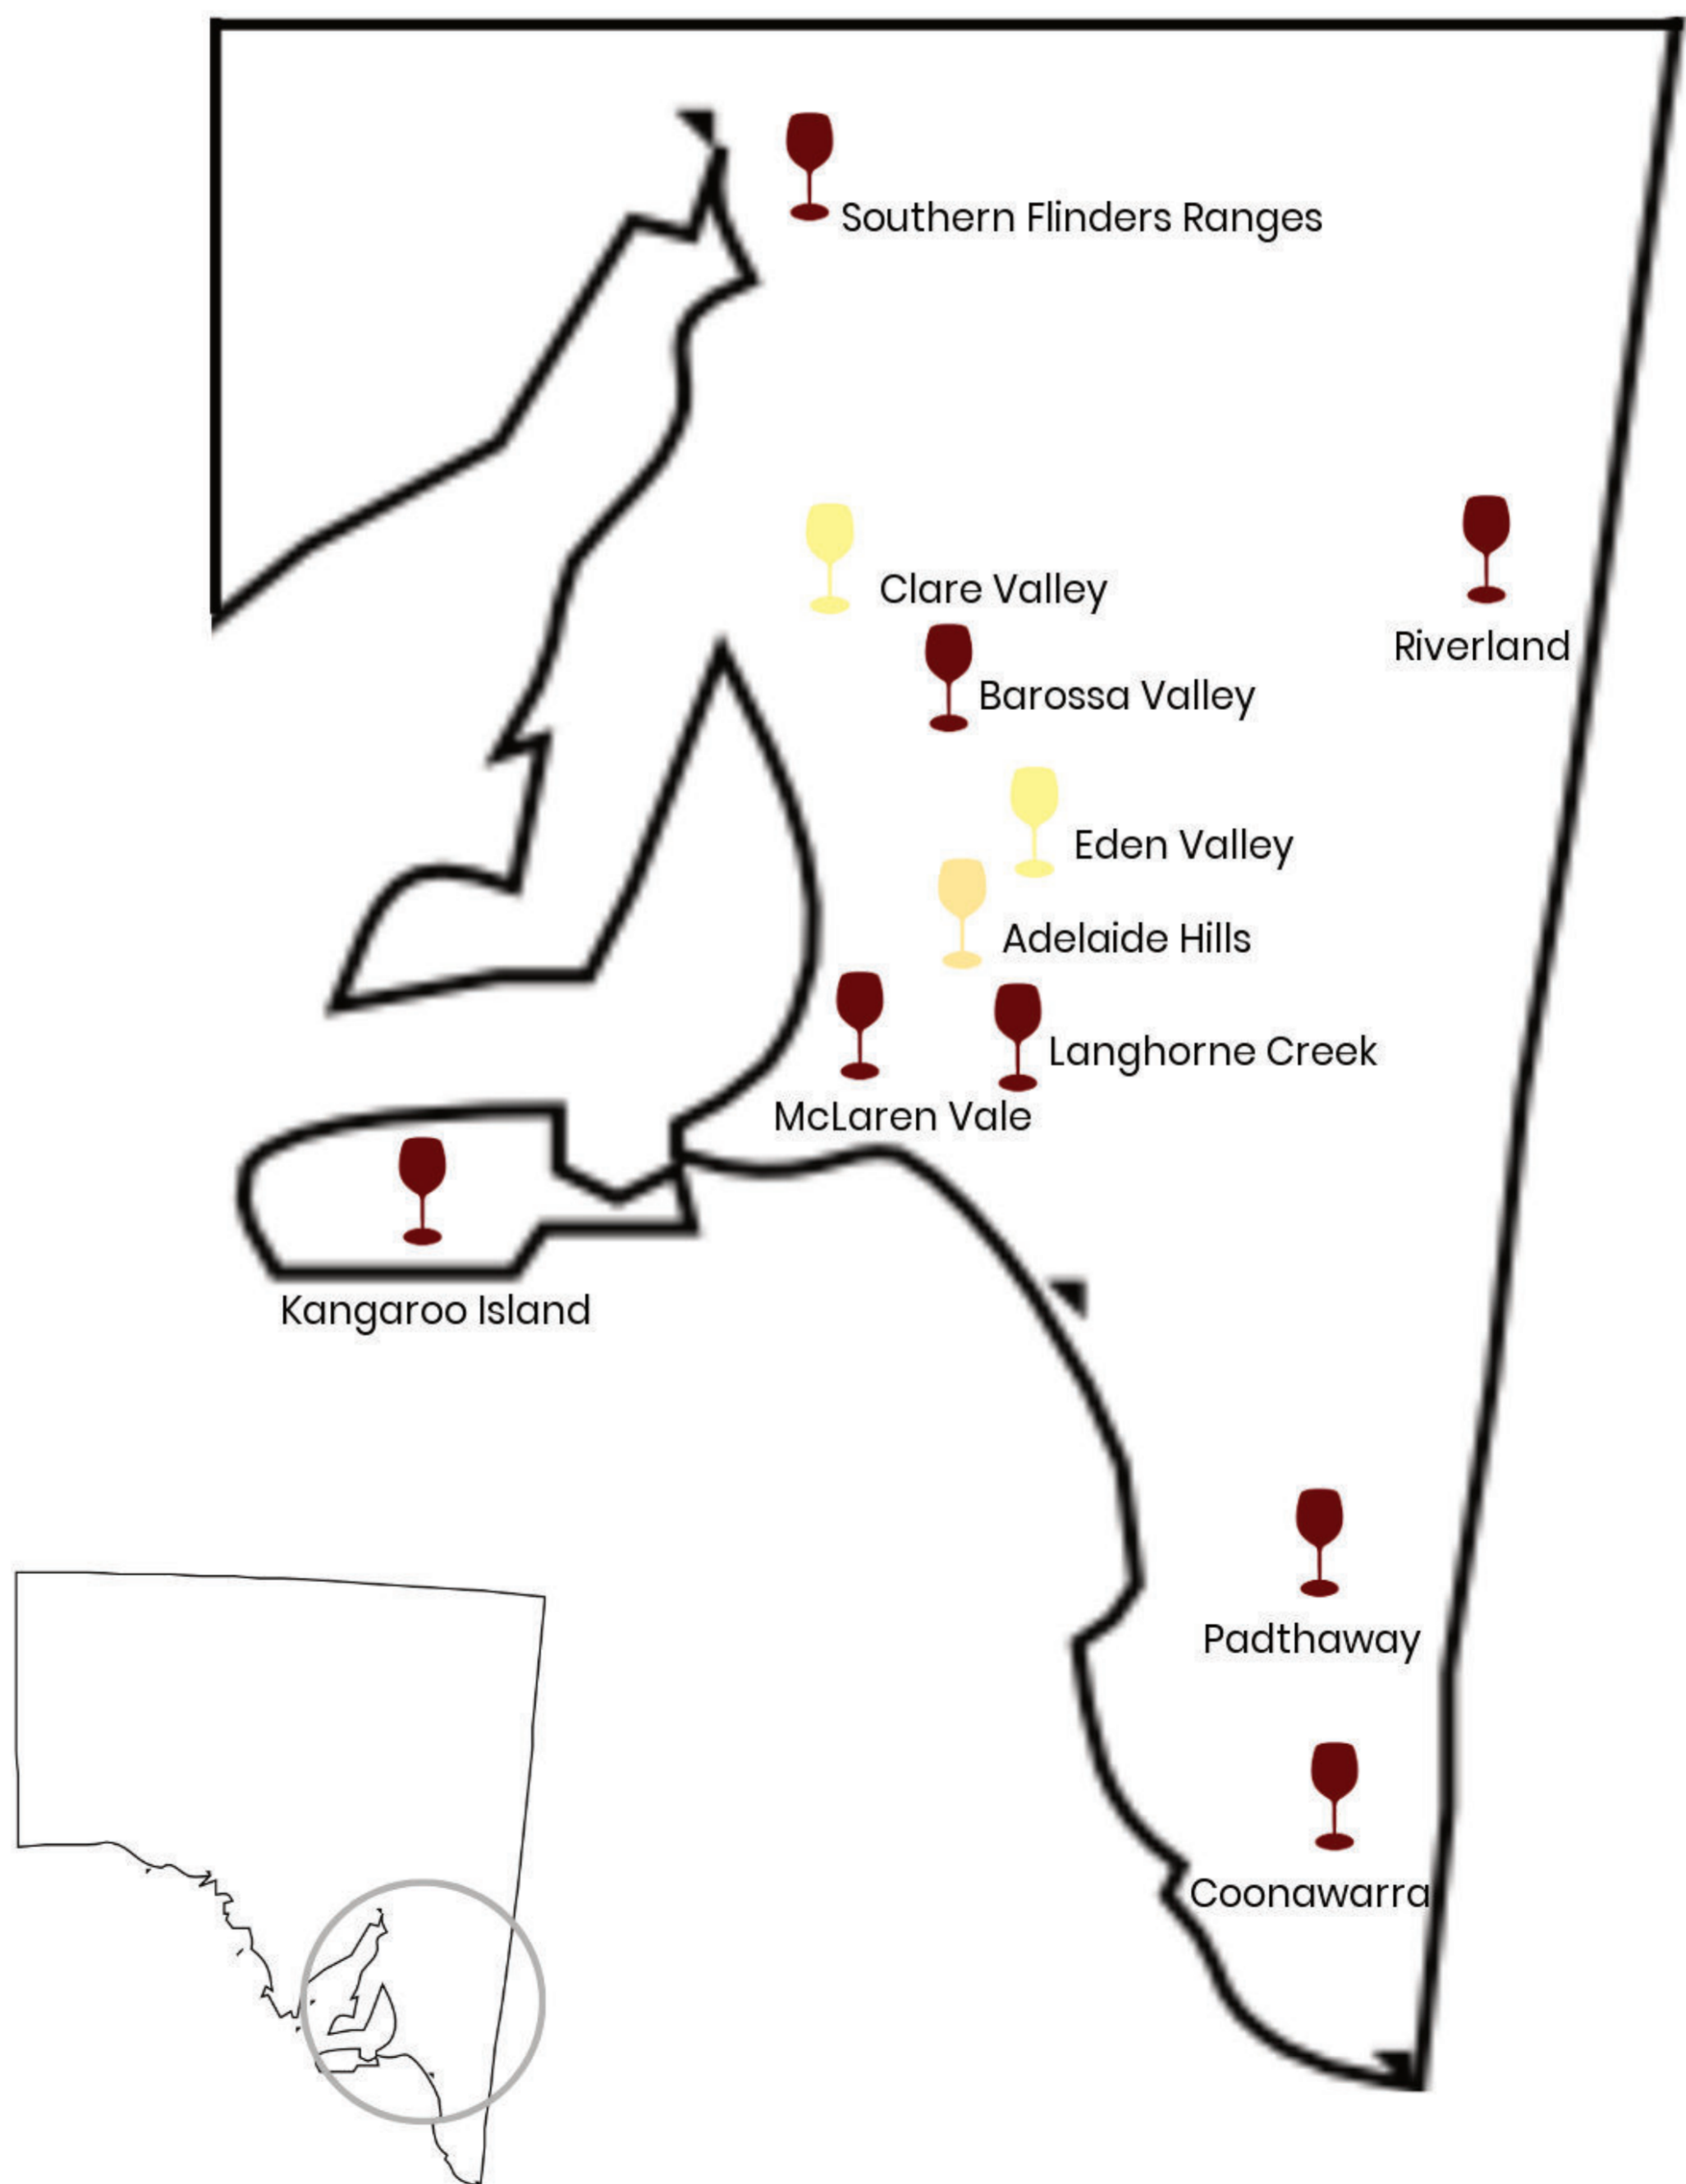

fleurieu peninsula

Only a 40 minute drive from Adelaide, McLaren Vale, Currency Creek and Southern Fleurieu are all wine regions famous for their world – class Shiraz, Grenache, Cabernet Sauvignon and Chardonnay.

coonawarra, padthaway & the limestone coast

When Scottish pioneer John Riddoch planted the first vineyard and orchards of his Coonawarra Fruit Colony in 1891, he made two recommendations to his growers: that they should only plant on the fertile terra rossa soil that extended north from the township of Penola and that they only plant Cabernet Sauvignon or Shiraz.

This region is renowned for robust wines thanks to its unique terra rossa soil and limestone layers. It is home to Australia's premium red wines
