

Our History

---

The Strathmore opened in 1855, making it one of the State's oldest continually licenced hotels - and it has now survived two worldwide pandemics!

In 1944, it was purchased by the O'Brien family who owned several hotels in the area, including the famous South Australian Hotel, now the site of the Stamford.

During World War II, the hotel was used as Officer's quarters for the air-force. Following the War, the O'Brien's changed the hotel's then name from the Terminus -so called because this was the last stop on the former tram network to the Strathmore, after the P&O luxury Liner of the time.

The hotel was previously patronised largely by workers at the Adelaide Railway Station where interstate trains, including the Overland and Ghan arrived and departed until 1984, and the Adelaide News- Adelaide's afternoon newspaper and the first newspaper owned by Rupert Murdoch. The News occupied the site where the Playford Hotel now stands.

In 1972, the hotel was purchased by the Basheer family, and it remains in the same family over 50 years later.

WINE REGIONS SOUTH AUSTRALIA

ADELAIDE HILLS

Just 20 minutes east of Adelaide, the picturesque Adelaide Hills wine region stands out for its cool climate, undulating terrain, and hillside vineyards and orchards. It's also home to historic European-influenced towns, including Hahndorf, Australia's oldest German settlement. In this lush and leafy retreat, discover cool-climate classics like Sauvignon Blanc and sparkling styles, and unique wines made with alternative varieties.

BAROSSA VALLEY

Less than an hour's drive North of Adelaide, the Barossa Valley is one of the world's great wine regions, famous for its historic vineyards and full-flavoured Shiraz, Grenache and Cabernet Sauvignon. There are more than 150 wineries dotted among the scenic rolling hills and valleys, and the region's European heritage means there are bakeries, smokehouses and award-winning restaurants to discover.

CLARE VALLEY

Drive an hour north of the Barossa Valley, and you'll find yourself in the Clare Valley wine region – a hidden gem famous for its world-class Riesling plus top-quality Shiraz and Cabernet Sauvignon. Rolling green hills, gum trees and stone-cottage cellar doors make a picture-perfect backdrop for sampling world-class wines, eating local produce and hiking scenic trails.

COONAWARRA

This small wine region, revered by grape growers for its rich terra rossa soil, is known the world over for its outstanding, age-worthy Cabernet Sauvignon, along with premium Shiraz, Merlot, Chardonnay and Riesling. The drive to Coonawarra from Adelaide is longer – about four hours South East– but you'll be rewarded with a relaxed country experience, fascinating wine history and welcoming cellar doors, all within an easy drive from each other.

MCLAREN VALE

Tucked between white-sand beaches and mountain ranges, and just 45 minutes' drive south of Adelaide, McLaren Vale is a dynamic region of rolling hills, charming villages, great food and exciting wines. This was South Australia's first wine region, established in 1838, and today it's home to one of the most progressive and environmentally sustainable wine communities in the country. Expect bold red wines in a diverse range of styles.

EDEN VALLEY

Is right next to the famous Barossa Valley, but sitting at a higher altitude, the Eden Valley wine region is a cool-climate haven of premium wines, including Riesling, Chardonnay, Shiraz and Cabernet Sauvignon.

RIVERLAND

The sun-drenched Region produces a huge volume of Aussie wine, but these days there's also a growing community of boundary-pushers crafting organic and edgy wines from alternative varieties.

LANGHORNE CREEK

In the Fleurieu Peninsula, less than an hour's drive south-east of Adelaide, is home to some of Australia's very best red wines, and produces almost as much wine each year as the Barossa.

HISTORY OF SOUTH AUSTRALIAN WINE

---

South Australia is blessed with a diversity of soils and climates that provide a perfect platform for some of the World's best wines.

South Australia's prestigious place in the wine world began in 1837- a year after the Colony's settlement. Vines were planted by the South Australian Company in Adelaide's West Parklands, a five minute drive from the Strathmore.

Just a handful of years later, a German settler saw the immense potential of the area north of Adelaide we now know as the Barossa Valley, noting a resemblance to France's famous Rhone Valley. Then, in 1839, the first vines in McLaren Vale, south of Adelaide were planted by John Reynell at his property in Reynella. In 1850, Thomas Hardy began working with Reynell, going on to establish his own property, Bankside, in 1853.

While McLaren Vale may have been the birthplace of the South Australian wine industry, other regions were not far behind. The explorer John Horrocks planted the first vines at Penwortham in the Clare Valley in the early 1840s, at around the same time that Edward John Gleeson (the founder of Clare) also planted approximately 800 vines at Inchiquin. They were followed in the 1850s by the Jesuits of Sevenhill, who still make wine today in the oldest existing winery in South Australia.

The Barossa Valley settlement was founded by George Fife Angas, a wealthy English shipping merchant, who was active in promoting the new colony of South Australia. He financed three ships that brought Silesian Lutherans from Hamburg. They arrived in Bethany in 1842 and found the area suitable for fruit growing - particularly grapes.

It is significant that eight of the 13 oldest wine companies or continuously operating brands in Australia are South Australian. Established between 1841 and 1853 they include household names Penfold's, Orlando, Seppeltsfield and Yalumba (Australia's oldest family- owned winery), alongside Bleasdale, Normans, Sevenhill Cellars and Oliver's Taranga. The likes of Saltram and Hardys Tintara were soon to follow.

And then there are the names. Penfold's Grange, the Barossa Valley, Peter Lehmann and Wolf Blass - the list goes on. These special wines, signature sites and larger than life characters are synonymous with a vibrant industry that continues to flourish in South Australia today.

THE ICONIC PENFOLDS COLLECTION

At Verandah Bar and Dining, we strive to offer our guests wines in the best condition. With the newest technology from Coravin, we bring premium wines to your glass every time.

PENFOLDS BIN 407 CABERNET SAUVIGNON SOUTH AUSTRALIA

Launched with the 1990 vintage in 1993, Bin 407 was developed in response to the increasing availability of high-quality cabernet sauvignon fruit. Inspired by Bin 707, Bin 407 offers varietal definition and approachability, yet still with structure and depth of flavour. Textbook cabernet sauvignon, the varietally expressive Bin 407 highlights the rewards of Penfolds multi-region, multivineyard blending, with a core of ripe fruit supported by sensitive use of French and American oak.

PENFOLDS BIN 707 SOUTH AUSTRALIA

Bin 707 perfectly reflects the Penfolds 'House Style' through a cabernet sauvignon lens: intensely-flavoured fruit; completion of fermentation and maturation in new oak; expressing a Penfolds understanding of multivineyard, multi-region fruit sourcing. Full-bodied and with proven cellaring potential, Bin 707 retains a secure place among the ranks of Australia's finest cabernets.

PENFOLDS ST HENRI SOUTH AUSTRALIA

St Henri is a time-honoured and alternative expression of shiraz, and an intriguing counterpoint to Grange. It is unusual amongst high quality Australian red wines as it does not rely on any new oak. Released for the first time by Penfolds in the early 1950s. St Henri is rich and plush when young, gaining soft, earthy, mocha-like characters with age. It is matured in an assortment of old large vats that allow the wine to develop, imparting minimal, if any oak character. Although a small proportion of cabernet may sneak into the blend, the focal point for St Henri remains shiraz

PENFOLDS GRANGE

Created by the legendary winemaker Max Schubert in 1951, Grange is the most powerful expression of Penfolds multi-vineyard, multi-district blending philosophy, Grange is arguably Australia's most celebrated wine and is officially listed as a Heritage Icon of South Australia. Famously, in 1957, Penfolds directed Schubert to shut down the project, but he continued his work in secret. Three years later, the World recognised his work and today, through Penfolds chief winemaker Peter Gago, the legend is enduring. Crafted utilising fully ripe, intensely flavoured and structured shiraz grapes, Grange is a unique Australian style that is now recognised as one of the most consistent of the world's great wines. With an unbroken line of vintages, Grange clearly demonstrates the synergy between shiraz and the soils and climates of South Australia.

2008 HENSCHKE HILL OF GRACE EDEN VALLEY

1100

2019 HENSCHKE HILL OF GRACE EDEN VALLEY

1050

Deep garnet-purple in colour, the Hill of Grace presents fragrant notes of warm blackberries and black cherries with hints of menthol, dried thyme and sage, liquorice, dark chocolate and black olives. Full-bodied, rich and powerful, it has firm, chewy tannins, crisp acid and a long finish. It is still very youthful in the mouth with lots of flavour layers

2016 JIM BARRY ARMAGH SHIRAZ CLARE VALLEY

500

The nose shows intense, fragrant aromas of ripe black fruits, figs, apricot and wet stone with graphite notes. The palate opens with wet stone, ripe berries, coiled tannins and graphite.

2021 MOLLYDOOKER VELVET GLOVE

350

Dark in colour, deep in flavour and rich in texture; the Velvet Glove is our ultimate expression of Fruit Weight. Black plum, blueberries and roasted coffee intermingle with anise in its lifted fragrance. A supremely smooth mouth-feel like molten chocolate accentuates the precise balance of structure whilst liquorice and allspice linger on the palate. Indulge yourself with this outstanding example of a perfectly balanced McLaren Vale Shiraz.

2016 GRANT BURGE MESHACH SHIRAZ BAROSSA VALLEY

320

The concentration and power are beautifully balanced with layers of blackberry, coffee bean and dark chocolate. The wine has serious grunt, while having a lovely drive of acidity that will support the wine as it ages long into the future. It has all the hallmarks of a classic, rich Barossa shiraz with undeniable vibrancy and freshness. An outstanding wine from an outstanding vintage.

2018 HENCHKE MT EDELSTONE SHIRAZ EDEN VALLEY

320

Deep crimson with violet hues. Fragrant, spicy aromas of black pepper, sage, bay leaf and anise are interwoven with vibrant Satsuma plum, blackberry and blueberry, and gentle tarragon and cedar notes. The palate is complex and textured with rich and concentrated flavours of mulberry, blackberry and Satsuma plum, layered with sage, black pepper and star anise. The finish is beautifully balanced, with long, velvety tannins and excellent depth.

2016 WOLF BLASS PLATINUM SHIRAZ

300

The distinguished Medlands Vineyard lies within an exceptional pocket of ground at Dorrien on the central north Barossa Valley floor, a site long renowned for growing outstanding Shiraz. Gently sloping towards the North Para River, the microclimate benefits from cooling breezes flowing down-river from the foothills and enjoys optimum sunlight, low rainfall and low humidity.
